APPENDIX "A" - DWELLING TYPE DEFINITIONS

1 - Single Family is a structure with one dwelling only, separated by open space from all other structures, except its own garage or shed. This includes mobile homes that have been placed on permanent foundations.

2 - Semi-Detached/Duplex is a structure containing two dwelling units. A single house attached to a non-residential structure (such as a store, church, etc.) but separated from it by a wall extending from the ground to the roof, or one building with two dwelling units in it; one on top of the other or attached side by side.

3 - Townhouse specifies one of three or more dwellings joined side by side by not having any other dwellings either above or below.

4 - Apartment specifies a structure containing three or more dwelling units that share a common entrance. This would include a dwelling unit in a 3-plex, 4-plex, etc., a high-rise building, plus a non-residential building or a house that has been converted.

5 - Mobile Home is a movable dwelling designed and constructed to be transported (by road) on its own chassis to a site and placed on a temporary foundation. It should be capable of moving to a new location on short notice. It is usually located in a mobile home park. This does not include a mobile home on a permanent foundation (i.e. Brentwood)

6 - Institution specifies homes for seniors, and correctional settings, and the hospital.

7 – Other/Non-Permanent is a dwelling unit that does not fit into the above categories. This would include a recreation vehicle, a hotel or a motel as a residence, a tent, homeless people, etc.
